New Student
Finnish Student Health Service
Congratulations on your new place of study!

- Healthy lifestyle and good interpersonal relationships affect positively to health, physical condition and general well-being.
- During your studies, you’ll get information, support and help from Finnish Student Health Service (in Finnish: Ylioppilaiden terveyden-hoitosäätiö YTHS) to your questions about health and illnesses.
- Please remember that FSHS only provides basic health care services and does not e.g. perform extensive medical operations.

Start using Self!

• Self is an online service through which students can communicate with FSHS.

• At the beginning of the semester, register to service for a user. Thereafter FSHS can send you invitation letters and electronic questionnaires which you can fill in before your appointment.

• Self allows you to manage your appointment bookings, submit preliminary information forms, participate in surveys and communicate securely with FSHS experts.

• If you have a Finnish online banking ID or a mobile ID, you can use them to log in to the service.

• If you don’t have a Finnish online banking ID or a mobile ID, bring your passport to your first appointment at FSHS for the online authentication. Read more.
An appointment for FSHS’s services

1. Contact us by phone

Before appointment reservation FSHS makes a treatment need assessment. The assessment is made by a health care professional regarding access to and urgency of treatment.

FSHS has a call-back service. Continue to call until the machine tells you that your call-back request has been registered.

2. Make an appointment

After treatment need assessment you can book an appointment by phone or when you have a permission to appointment you can use Self.

Self allows you to manage your appointment bookings and submit preliminary information forms. Everyone can view and cancel their appointments without permission.

3. When you have an appointment

Make sure you arrive in time for your appointment.

Remember to cancel your appointment in time if you cannot make it.
